

POWER.NET Online Privacy Statement

The policies below are applicable to www.power.net and other sites on the World Wide Web owned and operated by DHM Information Management, Inc. dba POWER.NET ("POWER.NET").

1. General

POWER.NET respects the privacy of every individual who visits our Web sites, responds to our advertisements or sends us e-mail. This Privacy Statement outlines the information POWER.NET will collect and how we will use that information. This Statement will also instructs you on what to do if you do not want your personal information collected or shared when you visit POWER.NET Web sites, respond to our advertisements or send us email.

2. Secure Order Forms

All order forms on POWER.NET utilize a Secure Socket Layer (SSL) or Secure Electronic Transaction (SET) protocol to provide "secure sessions" for our visitors. Through the "secure session," information that you input into a POWER.NET order form will be encrypted and should arrive privately and unaltered at a POWER.NET server.

Using encryption should usually prevent other companies and Web users from being able to access your information.

3. Personally-Identifiable Information

POWER.NET will not collect any personally-identifiable information about you (that is, your name, address, telephone number, or email address) unless you provide it to us voluntarily.

The following are some examples of when POWER.NET may require that you provide personally-identifiable information: (a) to complete an online order for a product or service; (b) to enter an online contest or sweepstakes; (c) to request more information about POWER.NET products or services.

If you do not want your personally-identifiable information collected, please do not submit it to us. If you have already submitted this information and would like for us to remove it from our records, please contact us at privacy@power.net. We will use reasonable efforts to delete your information from our existing files.

When you do provide us with personally-identifiable information, we may use that information in the following ways, unless stated otherwise: (a) we may process that information to better understand all customer needs and how we can improve our products and services for all customers; (b) to contact you if we have questions about your account; (c) to contact you with new promotions and announcements.

POWER.NET will not sell personally-identifiable information to unrelated third parties.

4. Non-Personally-Identifiable Information

We may collect information about you that is not personally-identifiable. Examples of this type of information include the type of Internet Browser you are using, the type of computer operating system you are using, and the domain name of the Web site and/or Internet Service Provider from which you linked to our site or advertisement.

We may sell or share non-personally-identifiable information with business partners and other third parties.
